Sir,

With reference to your letter No. L 1115 dated 17th May 1945, calling for further particulars in the matter of sanctioning a cycle allowance of Rs 2/- to Mr. [illegible], Bill Collector, Sanitary Section, I have the honour to state that this peon is not employed exclusively for the service of notices. He is entrusted with other duties of work in the section. He is the only peon in the section entrusted with the service of notices. As he has to travel considerable distance in the city to serve the notices, he is entitled to the allowance provided in the Government Order referred to in the Council's resolution.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
